Cayman National contributes to the Development of Sports in the Sister Islands

Mrs. Zanda Scott, Manager of Cayman National Bank's Cayman Brac Customer Service, presented a cheque to The Sports Association of the Sister Islands (SASI) in support of their 'Elite Programme'. This programme is mainly to facilitate the travel of the National Coaches and the various National teams between Cayman Brac and Grand Cayman for training on weekends, and travel to the USA where the teams participate in team competitions.

SASI's Vice-President, Ventisha Conolly expressed appreciation on behalf of the association and commented that Cayman National Bank and its Cayman Brac staff have been very supportive of the fund-raising efforts of the association. "We thank Cayman National for their generous donation and for joining us in our endeavours to see our athletes succeed," said Ms. Conolly.
