The President of the Cayman Islands Basketball Association (CIBA), Mr Bryan Hunter said “I would like to thank Cayman National Corporation for being the lead sponsor of the 2010 U12 Boys and Girls Inter-Primary School League. The generous financial support of Cayman National has been of great assistance to CIBA in our efforts to raise the profile of youth basketball in the Cayman Islands.”

Cayman National Corporate Senior Executive Claudia Welds added “We are happy to be able to support the U12 Boys and Girls Inter-Primary School Basketball League. We believe that programs such as this that help to foster the development of an active lifestyle among our young people are vital to promoting the long term health and wellness of our community. Cayman National is pleased to support youth development in basketball, which is one of the most popular sports in the Cayman Islands.”

Technical Director of CIBA, Coach Voot O’Garro said “The Inter-Primary School League provides our youth with opportunities to learn the fundamentals while playing the game they love. These children are the future of basketball for Cayman and it is important that we give them every opportunity to excel. ”

For those wanting to watch the teams compete, the League games are being held on Saturday mornings at the outdoor courts at Cayman International School in Camana Bay. For information on league times and team statistics visit www.caymanbasketball.org.
